Cancellations and Penalties:

Cruise lines, tour companies, airlines, and hotels have different deposit, final payment, and cancellation requirements and penalties. Information concerning your vacation, including penalties and restrictions, should be reviewed. Cruise Lines and tour companies adhere strictly to their policies. You may find the actual terms and conditions on the cruise line's website by following these links: Princess Cruises. To help cover the expenses of processing the refunds, Admiral of the Fleet Cruise Center has a cancellation fee of $25* per person. This fee, however, maybe covered by insurance for those who took advantage of the program.

Travel Insurance is Strongly Recommended:

Unforeseen medical circumstances may force cancellation of your cruise vacation. Travel insurance protects your travel investment and provides peace of mind. Our liability insurance provider requires that we obtain a signed waiver when travel insurance is not purchased. Trip cancellation/trip interruption provides very valuable protection of your investment against substantial losses of up to 100% of the trip value due to cancellation or unforeseen occurrences.
